

CHRIS ROBINSON

AGRONOMIST

PROFILE

Chris Robinson began with Farmanco in 2009, having worked as an agronomist since 2003.

Born in Kojonup (family still farms in the area) Chris worked as a company agronomist before joining Farmanco, and gained extensive experience in all areas of agronomy in the high rainfall zone.

Chris is a medium/high rainfall agronomist specialising in crops and pasture, and operates throughout the Great Southern 'high rainfall zone'.

Chris is a Farmanco Principal.
